hey guys
It's nana here

I don't know whether you've heard the bad news, but we're dropping Trace Perfume.

It sounds really stupid, doesn't it? I mean, we picked it up today! But another scan group contacted us and told us that they were planning to scanlate it after obtaining permission from Dazzi (which we obviously don't have).
Yeah.. so goodbye trace perfume!

On a brighter note, we've picked up PINK LADY CLASSIC by YEON WOO. We'd planned on just doing Trace to celebrate our one week anniversary, but since we're dropping it, we thought it only fair to pick up another project.

Hopefully, no one contacts us this time and tells us to back off. :P
Maybe we're just unlucky.

Anyways, enjoy!
